Reports:

Supervisor Johnson: On August 3rd the Johnson family welcomed their new addition to the family, Vivian Elise Jeep Johnson. Supervisor Johnson attended the T.O.I. Boot Camp training, stating that it was a great presentation. She discovered how unique our Township is and is happy that all of our departments work so well together. Topics of discussion went from future changes and programs to the shifting landscapes and how Townships are under attack. Townships are to continue to be the most communicative form of government with its citizens. We will be utilizing social media more to inform the citizens of our programs, what we have available for them and the jobs we perform throughout the township. Email addresses have been established for all of the Trustees and business cards have been ordered with current information.

Clerk Kunde: Nothing
